

Florite Crystal

Crystal Structure: Cubic Crystal System

Color: Deep Purple

Composed Of: Calcium Fluoride Mineral

Florite Deposits: Fluorite deposits are found in Russia, Mongolia, South Africa, Namibia, Peru, and Morocco.

Locations: Fluorite is found in many locations around the world, including China, Mexico, the United States, Canada, England, Germany, and Spain.

In metaphysical and healing traditions, fluorite is believed to have properties that promote mental clarity, focus, and emotional balance.